Election/Restrictions

1. Examiner's Note: The claims as currently described are very confusing because the components in the claims are unclear and especially in the process claims where there are no clear process limitations. The following restriction is made based on the examiner's best guess of what is being claimed.

2. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-10, drawn to a gas flow process comprising reacting droplets of organic compound.

Group II, claim(s) 11-19, drawn to a gas flow process comprising reacting two materials.

Group III, claim(s) 20-28, drawn to a composite comprising a carbon-coated inorganic powder.

Group IV, claim(s) 29-33, drawn to a business method.

3. The inventions listed as Groups I-IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

3.1. Groups I and II-IV: The inventive concept of the process of group II involves reacting two materials in a gas flow process which is a technical feature that is not shared in the process of group I in which only one material is involved. In addition, the process of group I is not inventive because it has been taught in the US Patent No.

Art Unit: 1794

6,132,653 (as indicated in the International Search Report). Thus, groups I and II-IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept.

3.2. Group III relates to a material in nanoscale which is a feature not shared with inventions of groups I, II and IV.

4. Group IV involves locating a distributing plant in relation to a manufacturing plant which has nothing in common with Groups I-III inventions. Therefore, groups IV and I to III do not relate to a single general inventive concept.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
